Disgraceful Journalism.

The Colonist Publishes an Implied Falsehood

Which Even Theodore Davie Could Not Swallow.

If the election did not come off for a few days more, and the Colonist editor were to continue his old policy of abuse and misrepresentation, Dr. Milne would have as large a majority over Mr. Davie, as Mayor Grant had over Mr. Robert Ward. As it is, we firmly believe that the electors of Victoria will give our morning contemporary another lesson in conducting a newspaper by electing Dr. Milne with a handsome majority. The Colonist, by heading an article, "DR. MILNE WITHDRAWS," in large type, and by intimating that the discontinuance of his address in the columns of the Colonist was tantamount to a withdrawal from the contest, or susceptible of being so interpreted, endeavored to mislead the electors. It was a shameful—a dastardly—trick! But it will recoil upon the parties responsible for it. During the course of the forenoon Mr. Theodore Davie found it necessary to issue a fly sheet announcing that the statement of his organ was untrue, and calling upon his supporters not to be mislead by the Colonist. Dr. Milne also published a circular denying the malicious story, and inviting the electors to the meeting to-night in Philharmonic Hall. It is, of course, possible that some electors will be deceived and will remain away from the poll. But it is scarcely possible that such tactics will benefit the party in whose cause they are employed. It is surely needless for us to say that Dr. Milne will only "withdraw" when the last vote has been polled.

Electors, go to the poll to-morrow and vote for whichever candidate you believe will serve you the most faithfully and conscientiously.

REV. DR. TALMAGE

Rev. Dr. Talmage arrived at about 6 o'clock yesterday evening, and was driven to the Driard, where he rested till the hour of his lecture. After the lecture he very cordially granted an interview to a representative of THE TIMES, saying he was always pleased to be of any service to the press.

Dr. Talmage expressed himself as regretting much that he would be unable to see more of Victoria, concerning which he had heard so much that was favorable. He said, in answer to a question of the interviewer, that Victoria was a familiar name to residents of Brooklyn and especially to business men. The learned lecturer also remarked that he had been contemplating this visit for the last seven years, and indeed, had purposed long ago coming up from Frisco, had it not been for his dread of a sea voyage, "the ocean," said he, "being the only place where I am not at home, though I have crossed it eight times."

"This tour," continued the gentleman, "is my holiday, and proves thoroughly restful to me; I can only remain quiet by the seaside about three weeks, and then find it more restful to start out and visit my pastorate."

"Might I ask you, Dr., how, in the midst of such a severe mental and physical draught, you retain your remarkable vigor?"

"I attribute it chiefly to constant exercise; a walk of 15 or 20 miles does not fatigue me in the least."

"Dr. Talmage, is there truth in what we often read of your morning run of half a mile?"

"Yes, when I am in a deserted region, where my speed will alarm nobody nor suggest a race, I often indulge in a run."

"Many conjectures are rife as to the nonce of your marvellous knowledge of human nature; could you enlighten us?"

"I attribute it largely to the study of law, which I once pursued—also to a native fondness for men and children."

With true patriotic instinct THE TIMES man passed on to speak of our country in general, and of our coast in particular. On being asked his impressions of the country, Dr. Talmage replied:—

"I have been delighted; I had never been farther this way before than Dakota, but this tour embraced Indiana, St. Paul, Eau Claire, Fargo, Livingstone, and through to the coast, via the Yellowstone Park. As to the future of this coast I believe firmly that it will yet be gardenized; I believe there are being laid foundations in which the structure of future greatness is to rise. I think the system of irrigation will yet do great things for this country. One hundred years ago, Salt Lake City was a wilderness; through this system it is now a garden. This is only a sample of what may be brought to far fuller development on the coast by the aid of suitable machinery. I believe that civilization is now proceeding east as well as west, and that by and by the tide of life from the east will meet and greet the tide from the west, and their assimilation will be one of the greatest benefits that ever the continent knew."

"What is your opinion of our climate, doctor?"

"It is all that can be desired; further east it is at pre sent more severe; hot; this is excessively agreeable."

"Interested as you are in such matters, what difference would you detect in the moral life out here from that of the east?"

"It is much the same; virtue and vice will reach their consummation anywhere; vice has, perhaps, more scope here and more victims, but the commodity is the same. The same may be said of virtue, and neither east nor west has a monopoly of good or evil."

"What view do you take of the present condition and the future prospect of the relations between Canada and the United States?"

"I think the present estrangement and difference is only temporary and will be brief; the fact is, Canada and the States can't afford to quarrel, and each has enough of sense to appreciate the other. I think, however, that if any union e'er is effected it must be but the result of a growing kindliness and friendship on the part of each, which will in time melt down at least all antagonisms, and before which bigotry and petty strife will retreat with coward steps, as it ought to and give way for a higher rivalry and more nationlike ambition."

"As a matter of fact, Dr. Talmage, in your mutual intercourse with both countries, do you observe any pointed difference, either essentia' or superficial?"

"No, not now; the day was, years ago, when I certly did—such differences, for instance, as those of dress, but constant inter communion of the two countries has made them virtually one as regards their appearance or customs. I know no difference, in lecturing, between an American and a Canadian audience; one is as appreciative as another. I have lectured in almost all the cities in Canada and with great pleasure; in some I lecture almost every year, and I will be delighted, when I can, to return to Victoria and see more of your city."

After a few more remarks of a pleasant nature the interviewer took his leave, impressed, not by the awful greatness, but by the affability of the greatest American orator, who fame is world wide, but whose heart is even more expansive than his fame.

THE LECTURE

Of course, was delightful. Mr. Talmage appeared in a plain cutaway coat of dark fabric, a turn-down collar and a black, butterfly-shaped necktie. He did not wear cuffs, and his coat sleeves slid up nearly to his elbows during some of his vigorous gesticulations.

The theatre was well filled by an intelligent and appreciative audience. At times it applauded enthusiastically and shook with laughter. Then like a calm after a storm there would be a few moments of quiet, during which the dropping of a pin might be heard. During the lull, the great divine would be working toward a climax in narrating some choice bit of pathos that touched the heart of the audience.

MANNERISMS AND ECCENTRICITIES.

Dr. Talmage's mannerisms and eccentricities are known the world over. These unique characteristics make his talk interesting. He speaks rapidly and gesticulates still more rapidly at times. He seems to have his audience under perfect control, and as he continues, applause and tears come spontaneously from his hearers. His physical appearance is striking. He is tall and erect and possesses a very symmetrical form. Cuts of his face have been printed so often that it is probably familiar to almost every one. His features are very large and irregular, and while relaxed give him a benevolent and kindly expression, but when he is in the act of depicting some strong scene or drawing near to a climax in his address they assume a strength the force of which at once stamps him as a great orator and a great actor. Heavy, shaggy eyebrows extend well out over a pair of peculiarly bright and expressive eyes. His mouth is unusually large and appears immense when he reaches one of his rapid climaxes.

AS A PULPIT ACTOR.

He convinced all that he is a great pulpit actor. At times his emotional nature becomes so wrought up that he appears almost in a frenzy. His limbs and arms tremble and his eyes dilate with the fierce intensity of the enthusiast. But all this has a powerful and remarkable effect upon the audience, and one of the most interesting features of one of Dr. Talmage's sermons is to watch the different shades and changes of expression as they pass over the countenances of his hearers as they follow the drift of his discourse.

When Dr. Talmage preaches he does what but few other clergymen do—he works. It is not in calm, deliberate delivery of a carefully prepared thesis on some metaphysical or theological abstraction, but it is the passionate, fiery utterance of the great orator who speaks from the standpoint of absolute truth, and at the same time feels and acts what he says.

SHAMEFUL TACTICS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—Gleaning over the Colonist this morning I was somewhat surprised to learn that Dr. Milne had withdrawn from the political contest. As I don't take much interest in politics, I thought no more about it until I came down town. A friend said to me, "Isn't that shameful?" I said "What do you mean?" "Why, that libellous article in the Colonist stating that Dr. Milne has withdrawn, when he has not and never thought of withdrawing." You can judge of my indignation, as I had been completely taken in by the headings: "Dr. Milne withdraws—Complete Collapse of the Dr.'s oyal Faction," etc.

Well, Mr. Editor, that article has secured another vote for Milne. A party resorting to such cowardly tactics must be on the verge of destruction. Electors of Victoria, will you allow this scurrilous sheet to again insult your intelligence? Rise in your might and show them that lying will not convince you. The Colonist elected Mayor Grant by its slanderous articles, and Dr. Milne can thank the same sheet for the large majority he will have to-morrow night. ELECTOR.

THEO. DAVIE AS A LEGISLATOR.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES.

SIR,—If there is one member of the Legislative Assembly of this province who is better calculated than any other to make a muddle of laws and enact mischievous legislation, that member is Theodore Davie. Not content with eternally tinkering up local acts and twisting and tearing the statutes out of all previous recognition, he even aims at meddling with the highest constitutional law of our country. Who was it that introduced a bill at the last session of the House to abolish grand juries? WE ALL KNOW IT WAS THEODORE DAVIE! Our jury system has been brought to its present great perfection through the experience of ages. Going back through the dim mists of a thousand years we find our forefathers struggling for this bulwark of our liberties. Magna Charta was the root of our jury system—the death of our civil rights. Mr. Davie spoke at his meeting on Saturday night of a former government taking away the "civil rights" of school teachers, but he had nothing to say in defence of his own attempt to impair the civil rights of a whole people. Electors, go to the polls to-morrow, and like the brave barons of Runnymede, who wrestled this precious privilege for you from a tyrant king, defend it through the ballot box against a man like Theo. Davie, who tried to take it away from you, and who, if he had his way, would put you back again to the dark days of feudalism and tyranny. RUNCORN.

MR. DAVIE'S "PLUMPERS."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—I am very glad that "a former government supporter" has pointed out how Mr. Davie was returned at the last election. Mr. Davie, even at the risk of being defeated, should not have allowed his friends to plump for him. Such was not the case, but it might so. Have happened that the whole of his colleagues were thrown out by this action and their opponents elected. As it was he sacrificed Mr. Duck to secure his own election, which I consider the worst kind of bad faith.

Blow at Protestantism—Policy to Destroy the Influence of the Church.

Miss Huntington to Marry an Impecunious Prince—The Maybrick Case.

By Postal Telegraph.

London, Aug. 20.—A dispatch from Shanghai says that while a steamer was making a trial trip yesterday with a large number of invited guests, her boiler exploded and thirty persons were killed outright and forty or fifty injured. Many jumped overboard in the panic which succeeded the explosion, and which was increased by the alarm of fire. The flames were extinguished before making much headway.

DEADLY DYNAMITE.

Vienna, Aug. 20.—A cartridge of dynamite accidentally exploded in a colliery at Dorna, Hungary, whereby two men were killed and many wounded.

ROYALLY TREATED.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 20.—The Czar and Czarina entertained at lunch yesterday members of the Austrian Embassy. The affair was in honor of the birthday of Emperor Francis Joseph. The Czar proposed the health of his Imperial brother, which was drunk with due honor.

A PREMIER'S HEALTH.

London, Aug. 20.—Herr Tirza, Hungarian premier, has been at Ostend for three weeks, apparently for the benefit of his health.

A WINNIPEG ACCIDENT.

Winnipeg, Aug. 20.—A horse attached to a buggy ran away yesterday from near the Imperial Bank. Mrs. Riordon, wife of the inspector of Crown lands, occupied a seat in the vehicle. The animal rushed up Main street and in attempting to turn up William street the vehicle struck a telegraph pole with tremendous violence. The animal was thrown with great violence on his side and the lady was precipitated to the hard street. The horse leaped to his feet, and dragging the vehicle and the lady after him, the lady was badly injured before the animal was stopped. She did not lose presence of mind, and when extricated from her perilous position said she was not badly hurt. She was bleeding rather profusely from a gash in the face and was taken home in a cab.

WILL GET THERE ALONE.

Montreal, Aug. 20.—For some days the French papers have been asserting that the Dominion government had refused permission to the French war ships to come to Montreal on the ground that it would tend to undue intimacy between French-Canadians and their French compatriots in old France. The officers alone are coming up.

SALVATION ECHOES.

The 1st and 2nd of September are expected to be great days in the history of the Montreal Salvation Army. There will be the anniversary demonstration, the farewell to Commissioner Coombs and the welcome to Commissioner Adams.

POLITICAL CANARD.

Quebec, Aug. 20.—The report started in Montreal that Hon. E. J. Flynn, of the provincial opposition, is about to abandon his Conservative friends and enter the Mercier cabinet as commissioner of crown lands, is simply a sensational canard.

SAVED BY A MIRACLE.

A fire broke out yesterday in a bakery store at Tadousac and spread to three neighboring houses, which were all burned. As there was no fire service, and water had to be carried from the river and thrown on the flames, it is a miracle the whole village did not go. Loss, $5,000.

JUST SO.

Kingston, Aug. 10.—Rev. W. Timberlake told the "Prentice Boys" yesterday that members of parliament were no better than the people who sent them. The electors knew how they were pandering for support and no objection was offered. He was glad to see a change in the condition of affairs, and that the people were growing alive to their duty.

A SHARP STUDENT.

Toronto, Aug. 20.—A somewhat unusual and serious charge is pending against a medical student. It is alleged he obtained old tickets of attendance at the Western University of London, Trinity Medical School and Victoria College, and having erased the name of the holder substituted his own and with these in his hand obtained a degree. The authorities of the medical council intend, it is said, to have the offender extradited, he being now in Chicago.

RESIDENCE BURNED.

Chatham, Ont, Aug 20.—Nursery man F. W. Wilson's residence was burned yesterday. Loss $3,000; insurance $1,400.

THE GULLIBLE PUBLIC.

Windsor, Ont. Aug. 20.—A slick swindler is operating through Western Canada. Upon entering a town he lays in a supply of small glasses at the expense of about 10 cents each. These he fills with earth, into which he places a couple of short stalks of milk weed and anoints the earth and plant with attar of roses. He is now prepared to furnish confiding purchasers with a shoot from the celebrated "Ceylon rose," using that or some other high sounding name, for $1.50 each, and does it as fast as he can handle them.

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER.

New York, Aug. 20.—The World pressmen struck at 1 o'clock Sunday morning. They demanded the discharge of an obnoxious foreman and a guarantee of union wages and hours. No action was taken on their petition, owing to the absence of the business manager from the city. Outside help was obtained and the paper was issued two hours late.

STUCK ON A BALL TOSSER.

New York, Aug. 20.—Sam Crane, of the Metropolitan baseball club, was arrested this morning on a charge of running away with Mrs. Hattie Fravenfelter, the wife of a Scranton, Pa., fruit dealer. Hattie, in russet shoes and a baseball cap, was also made a captive and locked up in a cell adjoining her lover. Fravenfelter claims his wife took $1,500 belonging to him when she ran away.

LET HIM REST.

New York, Aug. 20.—Frederick W. Sharon, son of the dead United States Senator, defendant in the celebrated Sharon case, arrived here from Europe yesterday. He was greatly surprised on hearing of the death of Judge Terry, but would not express any opinion, saying "He is dead, let him rest."

EAGLE RELEASED.

San Francisco, Aug. 20.—United States Deputy Marshal Nagle arrived on a special train from Stockton yesterday morning, having been released from jail there at 5 a. m. on a writ of habeas corpus issued by circuit judge Sawyer.

TO ACT LENIENTLY.

Baltimore, Aug. 20.—Detective Childs, who was sent here by Governor Lowry to arrest Jake Kilrain, does not think Sullivan will be required to serve out his full time. Said he: "I am satisfied that Sullivan will be pardoned by Governor Lowry, as will Kilrain also, if tried and sentenced. In fact, Governor Lowry stated he would act leniently, only desiring their arrest and a vindication of the law."

EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS.

Lewiston, Me., Aug. 20.—An extra session of Congress was discussed by Secretary Blaine, Harrison, Dingley and other Republican leaders, while the President was at Bar Harbor. Dingley, in an interview, says he believes it will be called about October 20th. The rules will be amended the first thing and then internal revenue and tariff laws revised.

THE WAR IN HAYTI.

Boston, Aug. 20.—Advices just received from Hayti, report the present condition of affairs the very reverse of what they were a few weeks ago. Since the effective repulse of Hippolyte's force, the Legitime men are said to have gotten into fine trim and strengthened their positions. It is said that Legitime is receiving financial assistance from the French Government.

C. P. R. EARNINGS.

San Francisco, Aug. 20.—A statement just received here shows that the Canadian Pacific Railway's gross earnings for June 1889 were $1,525,361, an increase over the earnings for the corresponding month of last year of $74,905. The operating expenses under a similar comparison, show a decrease of $52,109, so that the net earnings were $527,462 and the total increase was $126,574.

A FIRE HORROR.

New York, Aug. 19.—A crowded tenement house on 7th avenue was burned this morning in which twelve people lost their lives. It is thought the fire was the work of an incendiary.

WEST CHESTER RACES.

KILLED BY A BOMB.

Rome, Aug. 19.—While a public concert was in progress on Opera Square, near the Austrian embassy, to-night, a bomb was exploded and eight persons injured.

IRISH RAILWAYS.

London, Aug. 19.—In the Commons to-night the Irish Railways Bill was read a third time, after all amendments to it had been voted down.

DOCK LABORERS PARADE.

London, Aug. 19.—Ten thousand striking dock laborers paraded the streets of London to-day, marching from their homes in the east end, under the leadership of the socialist agitators, Burns and Champion. They carried no banners, but the bare poles decorated with strings of red herrings and crusts of stale bread were far more eloquent of the distress and suffering they wished the well-to-do of London to note. The demonstration passed off without the slightest disturbance, although early in the day a rumor that the police would interfere with the procession caused many angry utterances of defiance and threats of violence.

A GIGANTIC STRIKE THREATENED

Berlin, Aug. 19.—News from Rhenish Westphalia indicates that the labor troubles in that region will be very soon revived, and that the mine owners and their employees are drifting into another struggle for the mastery which promises to be a battle to the death. Both sides are now thoroughly organized, and the coming strike is certain to be general and prolonged. What very materially embitters the situation is the very general impression on the part of the men that employers have shamefully repudiated the agreements they made with the men when they went back to work after the last strike.

A BLOW AT PROTESTANTS.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 20.—The Czar telegraphed to Anton Rubenstein, the Russian pianist, his congratulations on the approaching jubilee of the latter's musical career. A jubilee testimonial fund for Rubenstein also received the sanction of the Czar.

M. Visobnegradsky, Russian Minister of Finance, has announced his intention to tax the Protestant churches in the Baltic provinces. Hitherto these churches have been exempt from taxation. This instance of undersized policy of Russia is to diminish the influence of Protestant clergy in the Baltic-German districts.

THE CRETE UPRISING.

Constantinople, Aug. 20.—It is announced to-day that the government has decided to increase the Turkish military force on the island of Crete to 30,000. The religious uprising there has been thoroughly quelled.

POISONOUS ICE CREAM.

St. Paul, Aug. 20.—One hundred persons who attended a picnic near here on Sunday were poisoned by eating ice cream. No deaths have occurred yet.

CAPTURING A PRINCE.

London, Aug. 20.—A daughter of Collis P. Huntington is reported to be engaged to be married to Prince Hatzfeld, cousin of Count Hatzfeld, German ambassador here. Miss Huntington met the prince in Spain.

New York, Aug. 20.—A cable dispatch from London to-day says: "Prince Hatzfeld, who is to marry Miss Huntington, is well known in clubs here, which sporting men most frequent, and is considered a capital fellow among his set. There is nothing against him but chronic impecuniosity and a tendency to contract debts which there is no immediate prospect of paying. For awhile he affected the turf, but had not money enough to cut much of a figure. He has been a well-known figure at most of the fashionable watering places on the continent and has cultivated the acquaintance of rich American girls at Monte Carlo, Baden, Hamburg and other foreign resorts. He has been assiduous in his attention to Miss Huntington. Some of his friends estimate his debts to amount to 4,000,000 francs, which he of course expects to have paid off when he is married.

MRS. MAYBRICK'S CONDITION.

London, Aug. 20.—As the day fixed for the execution of Mrs. Maybrick approaches, popular excitement, growing out of the extraordinary efforts being made in her behalf, becomes greater, and the suspense and anxiety is positively painful. This morning a rumor is received that the condemned woman is in a condition which will preclude the possibility of the execution on the day set, pardon or no pardon, and which will necessitate her examination by a jury of matrons before the law can be allowed to take its course.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Quebec, Aug. 20.—There was a narrow escape from a drowning catastrophe at Lake St. Joseph on Sunday. Three young ladies, daughters of J. G. H. Baillargeon, P. Billingsley and M. Ahearn, while out sailing in a row boat, capsized and all were precipitated into the lake. A gentleman, who witnessed the accident promptly went to their assistance and got them out of the water in an exhausted condition.

THE LATE COLLISION.

Quebec, Aug. 12.—The trial of the Polynesian-Cynthia disastrous collision case commenced in the vice-admiralty court this morning before Judge Irvine. A large number of witnesses were in attendance. The repairs to the Polynesian are about completed and she comes out of the dock on Monday.

FIGHT WITH A WHALE.

Quebec, August 20.—The gulf is said to be almost swarming with whales this season; one of them made an attack on the tug steamer Dauntless, off Point des Monts, last Thursday. In the onset the boat got a slap from the animal's tail, which made her shiver from stem to stern.

Preparations Going on for the Pacific Mail Contract—Political.

Special to THE TIMES.]

Ottawa, Aug. 20.—A special cablegram to-day says that preparations are going ahead to proceed with the negotiations for carrying out the Pacific mail contract. To comments in the London Times, the C. P. R. replies that while they expect competition from the Suez route, all parties will be benefitted from the route round the world such as the Canadian alternative route will provide.

Hall and Booth, of Ottawa, purchased to-day a timber limit from Bryson Bros, of which John Bryson, M. P., is partner, for $90,000. The limit is on the Petawawa, and is only twenty miles square. The price is the largest ever paid in this district.

Premier Mercier, of Quebec, states that the provincial elections will not come off before the regular time, unless Sir John threatens to go to the country. It is their intention to be ready for this, and the work of organization is now going on in Quebec.

THE CAPITAL.

Regulars to Compete—McCarthy to be Endorsed.

Special to THE TIMES.]

Ottawa, Aug. 20.—A telegram was received to-day by the secretary of the Dominion Rifle Association that a team of regulars would attend the meeting here, which commences in about two weeks. The team will consist of Capt. French, Lieut. Becher and eight sergeants of the 2nd battalion, West Riding, Yorkshire, regiment, now stationed at Halifax.

A meeting of Orangemen will be held here in a few days to endorse Dalton McCarthy's action in opposing the dual language and separate schools in Manitoba and the Northwest.

A SUBSTANTIAL PRESENT.

Ten Thousand Pounds Sent in to the Prince of Wales.

London, Aug. 18.—If the Queen and her royal offspring have been very much put out over the shameful way in which the Radicals opposed their modest request for more money the Prince of Wales, at least, has something with which to soothe his lacerated feelings. As a direct outcome of the agitation instituted by the Radicals, members of parliament, and other supporters, the Prince has received an anonymous letter, in which the writer deplores the inconsiderate conduct of the disloyal Radicals, and sympathizes with His Royal Highness in the unpleasant position in which the agitation placed him. Last, but by no means least, he gives a proof of his sincerity of his sympathy by enclosing ten crisp Bank of England notes, each of the denomination of a thousand pounds. No name is signed to the communication, and the writer has been at much pains to avoid leaving any clue to his identity that no one is prepared even to guess at who he can be.

Sad Accident.

On Sunday morning four young men named J. W. Thompson, J. Thompson, Thos. Leane and James Thompson, all of Nanaimo, went for a boat ride as far as Lighthouse Island. During the evening they noticed a flock of ducks on the bay and James Thompson ran towards the boat and grasping the gun attempted to drag it towards him when it exploded, completely shattering his forearm, his hand only hanging to his wrist by a shred. His companions went to his assistance immediately and bound his coat around his arm, above the wound, with the effect of partially staunching the flow of blood and then jumping into the boat rowed for home as quickly as possible, the patient holding his arm above the wound the whole way. The only words he said were, "This is a bad job." He neither fainted or exhibited any signs of lassitude during the ride home. On arriving at Nanaimo Dr. L. T. Davis was summoned and he said that amputation was the only thing that would save the man's life, and accordingly wired for Dr. Walkem of East Wellington, who assisted him to remove the injured limb. On last enquiry the patient was doing as well as could be expected.—Nanaimo Courier.

THE ORGAN'S MENDACITY.

The venal instincts of the Colonist were never better illustrated than in the howl it has raised over Dr. MILNE'S withdrawal of his "address" from the columns of that organ. Dr. MILNE withdrew the "address" for the very obvious reason that owing to the proximity of the election its presence in the Colonist was no longer necessary. The Colonist, however, cannot philosophically reconcile itself to the loss of a dollar and so it vents its spleen in glaring headlines, the "Rout of the Opposition," thus adding mendacity to venality. The Colonist prates at great length over the unscrupulous political methods of THE TIMES, but THE TIMES has never yet howled publicly over the loss of advertising patronage. Says the Colonist, in conclusion to its mendacious advertisement of Dr. MILNE'S "withdrawal:" "The only course now open to the doctor is to follow his address." The wish in this case is evidently father to the thought. However, the man to withdraw, if he would evade the ignominy of overwhelming defeat, is not Dr. MILNE, but the tool of JOHN ROBSON.

THAT MEETING.

The Colonist attempts to make political capital for Mr. DAVIE out of the uproar growing out of the meeting Saturday night. The first man to squeal on this occasion was a DAVIE supporter. The second man to squeal was the Hon. JOHN ROBSON when he insulted an elector, and after that small wonder that there should be an uproar, in which both parties mingled in about equal quantities. The fact of the matter is the shallow defence of Messrs. DAVIE and ROBSON of their policy turned a meeting friendly to their interests in the beginning directly against them, and now they attempt to explain it away by saying that the opposition kicked up the muss. Too thin, Colonist, too thin. The character of that meeting is so well understood on the street that you waste your breath in the attempt to blame the opposition for Mr. DAVIE'S unfriendly reception.

TO WORKING MEN.

The working men of this city will do well to remember to-morrow that in voting for Mr. DAVIE they vote for a man who has bent his whole public career in the direction of class legislation. He supported a bill by which a Justice of the Peace might imprison a man for debt at hard labor, a law which is a relic of barbarism, and which if still existing on the statute books of any other province of the Dominion is a dead letter. Besides Mr. DAVIE stamped underfoot a petition of the coal miners, that the Chinese be prohibited from working under ground. But though Mr. DAVIE has been indifferent to the interests of the working man, he is not indifferent to his own interests. Last winter, in the House, he was the only man who had the effrontery to advocate the Legal Professions Bill, a bill to discourage lawyers from the east from practising in this Province. All of Mr. DAVIE'S legal enactments which have gone before the courts have been declared worthless; there is nothing, in fact, in Mr. DAVIE'S public career to recommend him for the position of Attorney-General. Let working men beware of THEODORE DAVIE.

MR. ROBSON AND SPECIFIC CHARGES.

Hon. Mr. ROBSON, in an attempt to throw discredit on the TIMES, stated that his opponents had never had the conrage to make a specific charge against him but once, and that on that occasion the TIMES had made an apology to him (Mr. ROBSON). The honorable gentleman might have saved so severe a cut for his new convert of the Vancouver World, who was at that time manager of this paper. At the same time we have a lively recollection of another specific charge which was preferred against him in the city council some years ago. The Standard published that charge in its report of the council meeting. Mr. ROBSON brought an action against the Standard for criminal libel and had the editor committed for trial. What was the result? To this day that committment has remained in the office of the Attorney-General and the case has never been heard. If Mr. SMITH was guilty he should have been tried in open court like the humblest subject of Her Majesty and punished. If not guilty his peers and not the government should have said so. He should have been given a chance to show whether the charges against Mr. ROBSON were true or not, and the fact that the case was suppressed without being tried is one of the greatest public scandals in the history of British Columbia.

DENOMINATIONAL SCHOOLS

Mr. DAVIE raised the denominational school question without good reason. The TIMES had never discussed it, and it was with great diffidence that we alluded to it yesterday. We recognize that the Catholic church numbers among its members many splendid citizens, and we also recognize that in a matter of conscience as pertains to school matters we are entitled to treat them with respectful consideration. But this does not deter us from urging that Mr. DAVIE bases his advocacy of the public school on dubious grounds. We have no hesitation in saying, in fact, the man who makes his conscience subservient to political considerations, whether he be a Protestant or a Catholic, is untrustworthy, unfit for the responsible post of Attorney-General. Hence it was that we permitted ourselves to allude to the question at all. Mr. DAVIE never should have alluded to the subject, trusting to the good common sense of the people of Victoria to settle the matter in their own minds.

OUR FINAL TALK.

Twenty-four hours hence the election will have been decided, and should the day have gone against the opposition it will be a serious reflection on the common sense of Victoria; the city in fact will have been the dupe of a designing and unscrupulous cabal. We do not believe that there is a man in Victoria possessed of average reasoning powers, and who has taken the pains to analyze the situation, but who is satisfied in his own mind that the cabinet is unfriendly to the Canadian Western Railway. Their speeches indicate as much. They have ignored the demand that they categorically unbosom themselves, and they have emphasized it by insulting the individual who pressed them to do so. THE TIMES has urged that the Davien railway platform is a misnomer, the weak subterfuge of a weak man to build his political fortunes upon. Our reasons for so thinking hardly require an explanation, inasmuch as for more than a week we have ventilated them pretty thoroughly. Since, however, the force of our objections may have escaped the general reader, we shall venture to reiterate them, as the climax of our effort to nip charlatanism in the bud. Everybody remembers the protest of the Vancouver Board of Trade made against the land subsidy to the Canadian Western, and nobody will imagine for a moment that the Vancouver Board of Trade made that protest on their own responsibility. The newspapers of the mainland were in harmony with the Board of Trade; they spoke the sentiments of the Hon. JOHN ROBSON'S constituents; they have never altered their tone, in fact not one of them has supported the THEO. DAVIE policy in this campaign. Are we to suppose that the Hon. JOHN ROBSON is going to fly in the face of his constituents; in fact, have we not had evidence of his determination not to do so in his failure thus far to unequivocally endorse the Hon. THEO. DAVIE? Why should not the Hon. JOHN ROBSON cheerfully endorse the Hon. THEO. DAVIE unless he is deterred by a wholesome terror of placing himself in opposition to his constituency. Passing on to the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works, that gentleman is in a predicament similar to his colleague, the Premier. If otherwise was the case, why should he in this Mr. DAVIE'S pressing hour of need, decline to come to his support by maintaining a profound silence. That Mr. VERNON'S constituents are opposed to the granting of further assistance to the Canadian Western is indubitably correct, and is borne out by the language of the Inland Sentinel. This organ of the interior, hitherto unfaltering in its support of the government, deprecates in language amounting almost to remonstrance the policy of Mr. DAVIE, alleging that if this province has any more resources to disburse, a modicum at least should be distributed in the district of Yale. As for the Finance Minister, in what respect has that gentleman endorsed Mr. DAVIE'S railway platform? In what respect has he said a word snowing conclusively that he reciprocates Mr. DAVIE'S robust railway policy? Of all the members of the cabinet who might endorse Mr. DAVIE without detriment to their political standing, Mr. TURNER is the only man, and yet here on the eve of the election, an election whose moral consequences will be felt throughout the entire province, Mr. TURNER has nothing to say. We hold, in the utmost good faith, and without any disparagement to Mr. DAVIE we would hold the same if Mr. DAVIE possessed the legal ability of a MANSFIELD and the oratory of a BURKE, that as a cabinet minister pushing the fortunes of the Canadian Western in a cabinet hostile to his views, he is as powerless and as impotent to effect his design as the most inconsequential citizen who walks the streets. But this is not the worst phase of the matter. The fact that Mr. DAVIE must have known from the outset that the cabinet could not endorse him without subjecting themselves to great political risks, is good circumstantial proof that his railway protestations are insincere, aye, for that matter, fraudulent. This is the crowning disgrace of a record tarnished by gross negligence and a predilection for class legislation. This, we repeat, is the crowning disgrace of his political career, and the thought of his attempt to palm it off on Victoria as bona fide is simply intolerable. Victorians would fly into a terrible rage at being duped by an ordinary business men, but they accept with equanimity the bogus pretensions of a crafty politician aided and abetted by the cabal known as the cabinet. We repeat that if Dr. MILNE is beaten in this election, it will be a serious reflection on the common sense of Victoria. If Victoria consults her true interests, she will kindly but firmly decline to endorse the political machine, which now only awaits the confirmation of Mr. DAVIE by the people to perfect its running gear and thus set in motion a quintette as extraordinary for incompetency as they are facile in deception.

EDITORIAL NOTE

The visit of the members of the Medical Association Canada to this province just now is largely due to Dr. Milne's efforts while in the east last summer. The doctor, who has always kept an eye to public interest, suggested that the Pacific coast would be the proper place for this year's convention, and as a consequence negotiations were entered into with the C. P. R., favorable rates obtained and the trip has been made. The advantage which must accrue to our magnificent province by having a large number of learned and intelligent gentlemen visit it cannot be over estimated. Although its beauties are to some extent hidden by the smoke of bush fires they must realize that we have the substantial and permanent sources of wealth. Dr. Milne is deserving of praise for the part he took in inducing them to come here.

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—James Shannon, Leaskdale, writes: 'For many years my wife was troubled with chilblains, and could get no relief until about two years ago; she was then not able to walk, and the pain was so excruciating that she could not sleep at night. Your agent was then on his regular trip, and she asked him if he could cure her. He told her Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil was a sure cure. She tried it, and judge of her astonishment when, in a few days the pain was all allayed and the foot restored to its natural condition. It is also the best remedy for burns and bruises I ever used."

—M. A. St. Mars, St. Boniface, Man., writes: "Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is a public benefit. It has done wonders here, and has cured myself of a bad cold in one day."

—Mr. Josh Scales, of Toronto, writes: "A short time ago I was suffering from Kidney Complaint and dyspepsia, sour stomach and lame back; in fact I was completely prostrated and suffering intense pain. While in this state a friend recommended me to try a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. I used one bottle, and the permanent manner in which it has cured and made a new man of me is such that I cannot withhold from the proprietors this expression of my gratitude."

—That "tocsin of the soul, the dinner bell," as Byron calls it, suggests to pleasing reflection to the dyspeptic, bilious sufferer. He partakes, of course, but the subsequent torment is egregiously out of proportion to the quantity of food he eats, which lies undigested, a weight like lead in his unhappy stomach. There is a remedy, however, and its name is Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. No case is entirely hopeless.

—One trial of Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator will convince you that it has no equal as a worm medicine. Buy a bottle, and see if it does not please you.

—Hard and soft corns cannot withstand Holloway's Corn Cure; it is effectual every time. Get a bottle at once and be happy.

To the Electors of Victoria City District:—

GENTLEMEN:

In accepting a portfolio in the Government, my primary object is the construction of another trans-continental railroad, which, penetrating the northern part of British Columbia, and opening up the important district of Cariboo, will traverse Vancouver Island, making Esquimalt or Victoria its terminus.

It will be my endeavor, should you honor me with your confidence by re-electing me, to apply the resources of the country, so far as can be legitimately done, in furtherance of this project, which as a private member I warmly advocated during the last session of the House.

It was upon the understanding that the Northern Railway should be a matter of Government policy, that I agreed to enter the cabinet.

I shall take the opportunity of entering into particulars at public meetings, which I intend to call for the purpose, during the course of the canvass.

I am, gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

aug6 THEODORE DAVIE.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Rev. S. P. Davis, editor of the Pacific Baptist, occupied the pulpit and preached an interesting sermon from John 8:12. "I am the light of the world; he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life." Christ here declares himself to be the light of life and so he is. Ever since the creation of the world he has been the true source of all religious life. First, as the Jehovah of the Old Testament, then as the Messiah in the New. In the Old Testament it was but the morning twilight, then growing brighter and brighter, until the full brightness of the gospel sun shone forth in the person of Jesus Christ, the Saviour of the world. He it was who said "Come unto me and I will give you rest." "I am the bread of life." Some people say, "We have no need of the Bible or Christ," and yet they live in a land full of blessing which come from Christ and which they enjoy. But what are some of the uses of light? It enables us to avoid dangers, and so the gospel light enables men to escape the greatest danger in the world by accepting the Lord Jesus Christ. It enables us to enjoy beauties which otherwise we would not see. A Christian gets much more pleasure out of this world than a person who is not. It enables us to see our own imperfections and so we may if we will correct them and live holier and purer lives, and so in many ways this light shines from Christ and helps all who will be helped. Truly this would be a dark world if Christ, His followers and all Christian institutions were taken out of it. May we all realize that Jesus Christ is the true light.

PANDORA STREET METHODIST CHURCH.

The subject of the Rev. J. E. Starr's discourse in the evening was the evil and the cure of profanity. With the text chosen from Job 2, 9: "Curse God and die," the preacher traced Job from his enjoyment of almost all that this earth could afford to the time when he could hardly afford to stay on this earth, and how that when he had reached the extremity of his adversity his wife advised him to "take it out in swearing," or "Curse God and die." "Just as senseless," continued the preacher, "is the practice of profane swearing. Nevertheless profanity is widespread. In a series of sermons on the evils of the day, profanity must not be excepted. If in some places there is a by law against profane swearing, in our city there is none. And in all directions stalks this giant evil of profane swearing. Why is it? What's the cause? I remarked in the first place that such a habit is often formed from infirmity of disposition—that is, taking the most charitable view of the matter. They knowing the practice to be wrong and striving against it, yet when anything irritable suddenly happens will blaze right out, feeling ashamed of themselves the next minute for having done so, and forming the resolution that no oaths shall ever again escape their lips, only to blaze out afresh when an occasion arises. The practice again arises from the idea that swearing is manly. You have heard no doubt of the boy whose bump of veneration was but partially developed when his mother told him that unless he was respectful to aged people, he would be eaten up like such children of old by bears. Of course the very first time this boy saw an aged person going down the street, he poked fun at him. Having done so, he went home and said: "Now, mother, bring on your bears." This brings out the joooseness underlying our nature. An employee hears his employer swear, and he says, have I not as good a right as he to swear? And to show his importance he swears. I child knows his father swears. A young man setting out hears his companions swear, and he swears. Very few fathers who have the interest of their children at heart will swear. Do you think, O swearing father, that your children will not swear? Perhaps he has heard you swear in the next room. Perhaps some one has been kind enough to tell him that you swear. Your oaths uttered perhaps on the very Sabbath day, may find their echo not only in your children, but children's children. Is it manly to swear? No gentleman will swear. I do not care who he is or what position he may occupy, he is no gentleman if he swears. Says some one, "Is there no cure?" I think if people would stop to think how downright silly the habit is, they would not swear. Those who swear before God, will not dare to swear in the presence of ladies. Swearing is degrading. The vilest people are the ones who can swear best. How is it in the minds of thinking men, the question has often arisen, is there any use in oath-taking at the courts and custom-houses? Is it not perjury to swear to false invoices? How is it that there is so much perjury in the courts? I tell you, a man who has come to use the name of God in the careless manner that so many do, that man will not shrink from perjuring himself to gain his end. And I tell you another thing: The man who swears will steal. Says some one, "I swear and I don't steal." The only reason is, you think you can swear with impunity, but should you steal, you know you will find yourself in the arms of a policeman. There is nothing in you or your nature to prevent you from stealing. Whose name do you use when you swear? God's name, Christ's name. Would you like your father's name to be bandied about in a saloon? Who is God? Who is Christ? Have they been tyrants to you? Have they done that which would entitle you to fling imprecations to their teeth? Have you not been loved and cared for? Oh, you've got down pretty low, haven't you, when you drag their names to your level? The fact of the matter is, you cannot swear yourself upward or into true manhood. And then, too, I think it would be helpful to know the perfect uselessness of the practice. Have you ever collected a debt by it? Has it ever been the means of taking the meanness out of a man? How much money have you ever made by swearing? Not a dollar. But above all, swearing is wrong and comes under the condemnation of God. Ah, friends, there is a record filed away yonder among the archives of the court of eternal justice. This record we will have to face. Dare we face it?"

Devoted to Science.

A new anecdote about Edison's absentmindedness appears in an American newspaper. After a brief courtship he married his first wife, and directly after the ceremony began thinking of some intricate problems. Without saying a word to his wife or the wedding guests he went into his laboratory and began work. Mrs. Edison knew her husband's eccentricities and becoming sleepy retired. When she awoke in the morning her husband was still absent, and he did not appear all that day or the following night. It was just 48 hours after the marriage that Mrs. Edison discovered that Mrs. Edison becoming alarmed decided upon going into her husband's workshop when she found the inventor lying on his workbench sleeping peacefully. His wedding clothes were covered with oils and chemicals. This angered her, and she roughly shook the sleeping sage. "Go away from me," he shouted, not knowing where he was; "Can't you see I am thinking?" I should say you were, Tommy," responded his wife. "Now, don't you think it about time you gave me a little attention?" "Well, I'll think about it, as you request," responded the inventor. "Now, please let me alone, for I fear I shall be forced to set the new double back action, self-propelling fire-hose all—all—" At this juncture, Edison suddenly came to, and jumping up exclaimed: "Who am I, where am I, and who are you?"

PROCLAMATION.

NOTICE

IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT CHANCELLOR Browning, Commissioner for the S. P. R., has this, the 26th day of July, 1889, issued a proclamation warning all persons from purchasing lots from Samuel Strong, in Lot 28, Group One. Now, may it please Your Lordship, I have never offered for sale any lots in said Lot 28, for that would be deception on the public, as the highest legal authority in British Columbia pronounced the title to that lot straw—not one cent as consideration having been given. Now, if Your Lordship will adjust your wig and recover from your deep studies of Blackstone and the laws of estoppal, you will be able to see that the four Judges who threw your case out of Court last April were fully able to comprehend the difference between 28 and Pre-emption Record 1032, this being the Records numbers of my land on Esquimalt Bay. Come down and see us. I have a few corner lots (with a smattering of sea) yet left. I mean to sell, and the public will persist in buying them, notwithstanding Your Lordship's decision. Things will move just the same at English Bay.

All parties are hereby warned that Angus and Smith have no title to Lot 28 till confirmed by the Legislature, and all sales will be void.

The Southern California Sold.

The steamship Southern California, Capt. Reins, master, which has been in the colliery trade between San Francisco and Nanaimo, has been sold to Johnston & Co., of Liverpool, England. The late owner, Daniel Freeman, disposed of her in part payment of a larger and newer steamship, which will also go into the coal lary trade. As soon as her cargo is completed the Southern California will go to San Francisco, where after discharging the coal she will load grain for Montevideo, and from thence will proceed direct to Liverpool with hides. The new steamship of which Captain Rains will be master, will be due at this port in about four months and will immediately go into the coal trade.—Free Press.

Hams, Hams.

New smoked hams, breakfast bacon, spice rolls, etc., at the Yorkshire Market. Prices the lowest in the city. An inspection invited. jy20-1m Grear's Lots.

Word was received to-day that the Grear lots, placed on sale at Nanaimo, have all been sold at good prices. People seem to have a good deal of confidence in English Bay.

Hymeneal.

The marriage of Lewis Hall and Miss Sophie Cummings will occur to-morrow evening. The groom is best known as a rising young doctor of dentistry, while the bride is well known and highly esteemed by a large circle of acquaintances.

Faithless Roycraft.

It is stated that $3000 placed in the hands of Superintendent Roycraft by Officer Kirkup for investment in real estate was carried off by the former together with his other swindlings. The money is said to have represented the savings of years.

Importing Votes.

One of Theo. Davie's "right bowers" went to Vancouver this morning. It is pretty well known that he went "heeled" and his trip is to be worked for all it is worth. He will return this evening, and on the same steamer will be a few Davie voters, and that tells the tale.

An Ode to "John."

"Old Timer" forwards an ode to "John" for publication which is a trifle too severe. The last verse reads:

My neighbor province lives with ease,
While I wear patches on my knees;
The reason simply, plain and true,
It had honest men while I had you.

The Colquitz Affair.

The property holders along Colquitz stream will present their views to the board of aldermen for consideration at the next meeting. C. E. Pooley, Q. C., has been retained by the petitioners, who wish a decided answer from the aldermanic board. Failing to be satisfactory, legal proceedings will be begun at once.

Young Men's Institute.

Frank J. MacDonald and William H. Harris will leave for San Francisco on Thursday next to be in attendance at the fifth session of the Grand Council of the Young Men's Institute. The meeting will be held at Oakland on the 28th inst. Messrs. McDonald and Harris will represent Institute No. 85 of this city.

Panther Killed.

Mr. Edward Simpson, of Highland district, shot a large panther yesterday on Mill road. The animal, which weighed about 175 pounds, had eight shots poured into him before he came down. Mr. Simpson brought the head into town to-day to recover the bounty and because he thought the government just now was badly in need of a head.

For Southern Climes.

The Chilian sloop of war Pilcomayo will leave about five o'clock to-morrow morning for the south. A call will be made at San Francisco, after which Tahiti will be visited before reaching Chili. The crew are highly spoken of as a lot of good fellows, always in good humor. The officers are certainly as fine a body of men as one would desire to see.

Solid Vestibule Trains.

Commencing on Monday the Northern Pacific will run solid vestibule trains through from Tacoma to Chicago over their newly acquired line, the Wisconsin Central. Dining and sleeping cars will go right through. The acquiring of the Wisconsin Central has given the Northern an entrance of its own right into Chicago, an advantage possessed by no other line.

Chinese Doing Government Work.

A workingman called at The Times office this afternoon to complain that a Chinese teamster was engaged in hauling rock out of the provincial gaol yard. The gentleman who does the work is said to be busy canvassing for Davie, while the Chinese teamster is doing his government jobs contrary to the laws of the province. No Chinaman is allowed to be employed on government or municipal work, and the law must be obeyed.

Duty of the Opposition.

The opposition should make a determined effort to win to-morrow. If anyone had become discouraged by a long series of defeats and thought for a moment of withholding his vote from Dr. Milne, let him consider what he is doing. Those who have fought hard and conscientiously for a stronger opposition party in the legislature must not throw victory away for any trifling consideration. Mr. Davie is a defeated man if the opposition say so.

Civic Improvements.

New sidewalks are being laid by the corporation as fast as possible. Last year the work was done by contract, but this year the corporation are doing all their own sidewalk laying. From Government street to Rock Bay avenue, 728 feet of new sidewalk, six feet wide, has been laid. Both sides of Rae street from Douglas to Blanchard are to be improved with new sidewalks, and Chatham street, above Cook, has come in for a good share of improvements in this line. There is a great deal more to be done.

One of the Bravest.

The performance to be held at the Victoria theatre to-morrow night promises to be one of the best ever held in this city. The troupe, consisting of fifteen persons, will give a portion of the proceeds to the Victoria hose team to assist them in defraying their expenses while taking part in the forthcoming firemen's tournament at Tacoma. The fire laddies are selling tickets and will receive twenty-five per cent. on all tickets disposed of by them. Those requiring tickets should purchase them from the hose team or at M. W. Waitt's bookstore.

Bear's Nest Shut Down.

News from Alaska states the Bear's Nest people, finding that its supposed discovered ledge is no ledge at all, but only a series of stringers of no value, shut down and paid off and discharged all the hands. The buildings are all finished. Three hundred and twenty stamps alone remain unset. Over twelve hundred feet of tunnelling failed to reveal anything of value, so now all labor stops to wait for the ore to grow. The amount of wealth so far expended on the enterprise cannot be learned here, though it necessarily must be into hundreds of thousands.

Too Slow for Anything.

Next to one or two of our contemporaries the slowest thing in this county is the land office. The time it takes a document to go through either the office in Victoria or New Westminster is calculated to wear out the patience of the ordinary subject of Her Majesty. A man who sells a piece of land for cash, on the delivery of the deeds, has generally to wait a month or two for the money because he can't give the deed. The purchaser of the land is unable to invest his money anywhere else and thus in a country like this, where land transfers are being continually made, several thousand dollars are made unproductive because of the slow machinery of the land offices. There is no occasion for this dragging way of doing business and its injury to real estate business is very considerable.

Vote for Milne.

DAVIE, THEODORE. (Barrister and Solicitor.)
MILNE, GEORGE L. (Physician.)	X

Care must be taken that the cross is not made on the line but as near as possible in the center of the blank space. The ballot ensures perfect secrecy. There is no number or other mark on the slip deposited in the box by which the voter can be detected. All statements to the contrary are false.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

A SAD STORY.

More Prose Than Poetry in the Life of Some People.

A representative of The Times was talking this morning with a hard-working man, who supports a wife and four little girls. We do not feel justified in drawing this honest man's name into print on this occasion, but we feel justified in giving his views on subjects affecting every working man. The man in question follows the occupation of longshoreman and is very intelligent. He was asked:

"How are times?"

"Oh, pretty good just now, salmon fleet and Frisco boat every five days gives me a living," he replied.

"How about politics?"

"Well, I've got a vote, but hear me young man, it's not for Mr. Davie."

"How's that?"

"Any man that would attempt to imprison a man for debt, I'm down on. Mr. Davie wanted to make a law like that. I tell you I have hard lines sometimes. Just think if an accident should happen to me, and my wife and little girls should want, and I ran in debt to keep them fed and clothed, and then could not find work for some time. Don't talk to me about imprisonment for debt. I hate the man who'd think about such a law."

Here the newspaper man left, feeling that the honest working man was about right, and quite sure he was sincere.

A CURIOUS PARTNERSHIP.

The Conditions upon which Honest John Accepted Theodore.

If Messrs. Ellis & Co. should make a proposition to the "devil" in the Colonist office to the effect that he take a fifth interest in the establishment, and the aforesaid "devil" should stipulate as a condition thereto that he should be permitted to advocate "female suffrage" through the editorial columns, Messrs. Ellis & Co. would say, "here is gall for you," and all Government street would resound with laughter. It is difficult to suppose, we admit, that Messrs. Ellis & Co. should ever make a proposal of partnership to their "devil." Such a proposition, however, is quite within range of probability, and it is equally probable that in the event of the devil making such a stipulation as contingent on his taking an interest in the concern, Messrs. Ellis & Co., having some special object in view in bringing about the partnership, would acquiesce to it. They would say, "young man, it is perfectly clear from the nature of your stipulation that you are a crank on female suffrage. This is unfortunate, but since you can make yourself useful to us we submit stipulating in our turn that such doctrine, meritorious though it be, shall not be the avowed policy of this journal. We give you the use of the editorial column just the same as we do John Robson or Theo. Davie, but outside of the female suffrage fake you must submit to our policy." The young man acquiesces to these conditions, and the next morning he comes out in a card saying that he has linked his fortunes with the Colonist, and that his journalistic specialty will be female suffrage.

The knowledge of such a bargain as this, we repeat, would provoke a roar of laughter on Government street. Government street, between its roars, would ask, is the Colonist mad? But while Government street would find a subject for mirth in the matter of the "devil" of the Colonist taking an interest in that journal on the conditions named, Government street contemplates with solemn visage a partnership equally as absurd about to be consummated over at James Bay. In this partnership it is needless for us to point out that Theo is the "devil," and that the cabinet are the senior partners. The cabinet have discovered some virtue in Theo, which will be useful to them, and so in offering him a partnership, they submit to his little side issue transcontinental railwayism.

The dialogue between these gentlemen runs about as follows:

"I say, Theo.," says John, "don't you want a fifth interest in the government concern?"

"I wouldn't mind," says Theo., "but how about the capital—that is, the votes?"

"Oh! you can rustle the votes," John answers.

"I don't know about that," replies Theo, doubtfully. "My legislative credit is about exhausted. I can't rustle any political capital on my past record, that's certain. Possibly, though, I could make the railway fake stick. I might be able to persuade the electors to endorse my railway paper."

"The railway fake," repeats John. "I don't know whether I am prepared to take you into partnership on such capital as that. My constituents, you know, are not very badly stuck on railway stock. However, I'll tell you what I'll do. I'll let on to take your railway stock. As trustee for the government concern I'll endeavor to make the stockholders believe that your railway fake is good collateral security. In other words, you can preach up the value of your stuff, but I will not categorically express an opinion as to its value. If you can secure a partnership on the security you offer, it's all right, but recollect, I express no opinion as to its worth or worthlessness. Preach railway as much as you will, as fifth partner, but we utterly decline to preach railway too. If you can make it stick, good enough, but the senior partners of this concern will not endorse it."

This is the situation in a nut shell, and we hold that those who would laugh at the Colonist for forming such a partnership, should find material for everlasting mirth in the farcical co-partnership about to be enacted at James Bay.

Cancelling Certificates.

Mr. Theodore Davie, at his meeting on Saturday night, tried to break the force of the charges made against the Robson government of prostituting the department of education to political ends by producing a list of teachers, whose certificates had been cancelled by the former government. But Mr. Davie did not explain why their certificates had been cancelled, evidently wishing the impression to remain that the government had been actuated, as Robson's government is, by political motives. Mr. Davie was never more disingenuous. The certificate of every teacher in the province, without regard to politics, was at that time cancelled in order that a fresh set of certificates could be obtained. It was the only possible thing that could be done, and the teachers themselves approved of the step. A large majority of those whose certificates were cancelled subsequently received fresh certificates after examination.

Return of the Louise.

The C. P. N. Co.'s steamer Princess Louise arrived at three o'clock this morning with a full load of passengers from the north. Her freight consisted of 6,500 cases of salmon brought down from the Nass and River's Inlet. The B. A. P. Co. sent down 2,000, Cunningham sent down 1000, the Windsor Canning Co. 1600, M Lellan's Packing Co. 1047, Alert Bay C 700, and some miscellaneous shipments.

From Masset, Queen Charlotte, were brought down several bales and boxes of valuable seal skins, consigned to the H. B. Co. The balance of the cargo consisted of oil and skins for the Hudson Bay Co.

Among the passengers down were Rev. M. Miller, R. Cunningham, Mrs. Flewin and family, C. Lundburg and family, Mr. and Mrs. Penny, B. D. Dick, Miss Shaw, D. Dick, and about 25 others.

The passengers express themselves as delighted with the trip. No news of any importance was brought down.

Royecraft's Relics.

The sale of the effects of the late superintendent of provincial police took place to day, the attendance of ladies and gentlemen being large. The prices obtained were surprisingly high and fully $1 500 will be realized. The yacht Ada was not disposed of, and will be most likely held for a day or so before being offered.

THE TIME FOR VOTING.

The polls will open to-morrow at the Philharmonic Hall, Fort street, at eight o'clock, and remain open till four p. m. There will be no other polling stations. We would earnestly request the friends of Dr. Milne to poll their votes early, to make it a point to vote in the morning. In this way they will assist the committee, who will not lose valuable time in hunting them up. Let there be a rush for the polls to-morrow morning, and let every man who can take a voter to the polls do so.

To the Electors of the City of Victoria.

GENTLEMEN:—

In complying with the request of a number of the citizens of Victoria to stand for the seat now vacant in the Legislature, I do so believing that at no distant date questions will arise requiring careful consideration, and calm and just decision. Many of the late actions of the Provincial Government have not met with the approval of the majority of our citizens, notably the amendments to our school law. The amendment to our Public School Act of 1888, where it provides that the cities are called upon to pay the expenses of operating their schools, and also enacting that the cities shall pay one-third of the salaries of their teachers, is, I consider, a law unfair and unjust. If elected as your representative, I shall endorse the action of our city aldermen in refusing to pay the expenses and portions of salaries demanded by the Government. I shall also, if elected, use my efforts to have the present School Act so amended as to eliminate many of its features, which I consider have been introduced to give power to the Government in matters which should be left in the hands of the Trustees—the proper representatives of the people in school matters. I shall always uphold our free and non-sectarian school system. As the School Act now stands it is in many respects merely a political machine.

I shall use my best endeavors to obtain a grant of land or money for the establishing of a University, to be erected and maintained in the City of Victoria, as it is time such an institution should be founded for the higher education of the young people of this province. Victoria being the capital, as well as having many natural advantages, is by far the most suitable place for such an important provincial institution.

I am in favor of subsidizing any railway asking reasonable aid, making Victoria its terminus. As the Canada Western Railway is now a matter of fact, by legislation passed last session, I shall, if returned, use my influence to have the same completed at as early a date as possible, with its terminus at Victoria or Esquimalt.

The land laws of our province should be carefully guarded; and I believe it is in our interest to conserve our timber lands, and that they should not be locked up in large tracts in the interest of speculators.

The development of the mineral wealth of this province requires our earnest attention. Legislation tending to this end will receive every assistance from me.

It will be my most earnest desire to have Victoria made as far as possible the point of arrival and departure for lines of steamers either from the Chinese seas or Australasia.

In a few days I hope to have the pleasure of addressing you on the various provincial questions. In the meantime I solicit your influence and votes.

I am,

Yours respectfully,

G. L. MILNE
